Start drive for Bishop Fahey Memorial

Observations...

By the Editor

The wholesome smile and ever charming personality of Doris Carrio, really beamed forth Wednesday afternoon, when her co-workers at the Hancock Bank, joined with her in a little cake cutting after work hours. The occasion—Why it was Doris' 21st birthday; and of course, we too, want to join in with our good wishes, and say to this young lady, we always appreciate her pleasant salutations, filled with cheerfulness.

The Knights of Columbus of Bay St. Louis, will head a drive to raise funds for the construction of a new building for the present St. Stanislaus Day School. When the raising of the fund is completed, the building will be dedicated to the memory of the late Reverend Bishop Leo F. Fahey, Bishop Fahey first attended school in this institution, which he always affectionately referred to as "Rip's University." This school is a tradition in Bay St. Louis, and we know of no other worldly monument which could be erected to his memory which would be more self satisfying, had he had the opportunity of selecting. Bishop Fahey loved everything about the "University", and on the last day he spent in Bay St. Louis before his return to his see in Oregon, where he died, he visited the school. The people of Bay St. Louis, and particularly its Catholics, have an opportunity to commemorate the memory of its greatest son, and in so doing will afford a modern up to date school building for an institution that has really rendered a service to Bay St. Louis and the major portion of its citizens.

At the present time the action of the Board of Supervisors in abolishing the office of probation officer appears to be their wisest move. Time may prove it erroneous; nevertheless, let it be hoped that the work of Foster Com-magere will continue in the minds of the youth of our county, and that it will never be necessary for this office to be recreated. And you parents should ever remember, a probation officer takes over, only when you have failed in your duty to your children.

Friday the 13th, will be a rather eventful day in Bay St. Louis. A meeting has been called by State Highway Commissioner John D. Smith at 10:00 o'clock A. M. on that day, to which the public is invited for the purpose of having a full discussion of the matter of the location of the Bridge across the Bay of St. Louis. THE MEETING WILL BE HELD AT THE COURT-HOUSE. We are not going into a discussion of our points of view. We have already expounded our theories, and we will reserve our further thoughts for the meeting. At this time we cannot urge you too strongly to be at this meeting, and when there, express your views, this is the purpose of the gathering; and, too, may we suggest to John that he come to this meeting with an open mind, and forget the idea of making us the guinea pig for an experiment in road building in Mississippi. We want a good road, but we do not want a speed way, which will evolve into a death trap.

We want to extend our congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harrison, who are to celebrate their Golden Anniversary, tomorrow, October 7. May they have many more years of happiness.

We understand the presentation of "The Late Christopher Bean" at the Little Theatre is well worth seeing. The play is directed by Mrs. E. C. Samuels, and the cast is outstanding.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald will address a meeting of the Parent Teachers Association, Tuesday, October 10, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Bay High School Auditorium. Mrs. McDonald has just returned from the National meeting of the Parent Teachers Association, and on this occasion visited the United Nations Assembly. She will give a resume of her observations as a delegate, to the National Parent Teachers meeting and of her visit to the assembly. All are urged to attend.

At their Meeting on Monday evening of this week, Pere Leduc Council Knights of Columbus of Bay St. Louis, voted a plan to raise funds for the erection of a new building on the grounds of the St. Stanislaus Day School. The building when completed will be known as the Bishop Fahey Memorial School. The plan has received the approval of Right Reverend Monsignor A. J. Gmelch, Pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish.

TENTATIVE PLANS DRAWN

It is the hope of the Knights of Columbus to raise $50,000.00 to cover the cost of construction of the building. Tentative plans have been drawn for the new building, and it is estimated that the cost will be near this figure.

FOUNDED IN 1870

The school was founded in 1870 by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, and was originally known as Sorbonne, after the famous Parisian University. Brother Elphege was its only teacher at that time, and the enrollment was 60 students.

The school was closed for two years, 1878-1880, and was reopened in the session of 1880-81 with Brother Alphonse as director; in 1882 Brother Stephen became director, and in 1884 Brother Achilles became his assistant. The enrollment had reached 102 students. Brother Stephen and Brother Achilles worked together at Sorbonne.

Memories return to the Back School, as it was commonly called, and to Brother Stephen with his long flowing white beard, who loved his boys who, in turn, loved him. The boys in their disrespectful youth gave Brother Stephen the nickname of "Rip", because of his long white beard, and from thence came the sobriquet "Rip's University."

And of course, Bishop Fahey, as well as every other boy who received his early education from the Back School, always affectionately referred to it as "Rip's University."

The plans for the drive have not been completed as yet, but Carl Arnold, Grand Knight of the local council, stated that it was their hope to have all in readiness at an early date so that the funds may be raised as quickly as possible.

The council passed a resolution on the death of Foster Com-magere, and will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion, in a body, Sunday in his memory.

Women Voters Hold General Meet Sept. 28

The Provisional League of Women Voters held a general meeting Thursday, September 28, at 8:00 p. m. at the Bay St. Louis Youth Center.

Mrs. E. C. Samuel called the meeting to order, and announced that the survey of the Local Government had been completed and is now ready for publication; it has been submitted for competitive bids. She also announced that on October 11 and 12, the State Convention would be held in Jackson, Mississippi; Mrs. E. Horner, National Representative from Washington will be present at this meeting. Mrs. Horner will be in Bay St. Louis October 19, 20 and 21, and will speak at the general meeting to be called for that time.

A committee, composed of Mrs. Leo Seal, Mrs. C. D. Blair, and Mrs. Odette Wittelsberger, was appointed by the president to take charge of entertaining Mrs. Horner while she is here.

If there is anyone who has not yet been affiliated with the league, and would like to join, call Mrs. Leigh Carroll, 238-W.

Calls Public Meet To Discuss Bridge

Killed In Crash

Captain Ralph Kallock, 30, husband of the former Shirley Cassidy of this city, was killed in a plane crash in Japan Wednesday, September 27. Captain Kallock was on a mission at the time of his death. The accident occurred enroute to the target.

In this country he had been an armory and gunnery officer in the Army Air Corps. Captain Kallock had only been in Japan two weeks at the time of his death; during that time he is known to have completed four missions.

CAPTAIN KALLOCK

Captain Kallock, who received his law degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1949, served throughout World War II, and received numerous decorations including the Purple Heart. During this period of service, he flew supplies from India to China on a B-29.

He left Randolph Field in Texas September 9 for California and overseas duty. Mrs. Kallock spent several days in California with her husband before returning to Bay St. Louis to be with her parents.

Seize Slots At S & H. Grocery

Two slot machines, a quarter and nickel one, were taken from the S. and H. grocery at the corner of Washington and Third streets, this week, Aline Saucier, chief of police stated.

The slots, which are illegal in the City of Bay St. Louis, were concealed in a locker beneath the counter in the grocery.

The slots will be destroyed, Saucier added.

Al Voight presented a new 1950 Chevrolet to Bay High School Tuesday. To replace the one Mr. Voight gave the school last year. S. J. Ingram, superintendent, accepted the car in the name of the school.

The car, which has dual controls, is used in a driving course sponsored by the AAA. The purpose of the course is to teach students safe driving habits from the beginning.

Last year's training results were so satisfactory that it is planned to make this a regular part of the curriculum at Bay High.

Sideline Club Plans Motorcade To Stadium; Students To Participate In Elaborate Show

Plans for a motorcade to the St. Stanislaus Stadium for the Homecoming game between S. J. Peters and the Rock-A-Chows Sunday afternoon, were completed at a meeting of the Sidelines Club Tuesday.

All Sideliners, visitors and alumni are expected to line-up in ample time to allow the parade to move from the campus promptly at 1:15. E. J. Arce-neaux, will be the grand marshal for the parade. Everyone is advised to buy tickets at the college to facilitate the quick entrance of cars in to the stadium on arrival.

Kick-off time will be 2:15.

PARADE ROUTE

The route of the parade will be from the campus to the Beach, then to Main street as far as Ne-caise avenue and on to the stadium.

Lucien Raymond gave a report on the erection of the wire fence enclosing the football field. To date two sides have been enclosed; and the upper and lower sides will probably be completed before the game Sunday afternoon. The field house for the visiting teams has been started, but lack of funds has hampered the work; nevertheless, Leo Kenney, president, said, it is felt that the building will be completed before the midseason. Attendance prizes were won by Osmond Blaize and Norton Haas.

HALF TIME PROGRAM

An elaborate program has been planned for the half time period by Brothers Canisius, Elbert and Romuald.

The show will feature the Stanislaus and Peters bands. Assist-ing the Rock aggregation in their portion of the show will be a contingent of 114 girls from St. Joseph Academy.

The Rock Band, led by Henry Capdepon, drum major, and flanked by two files of 16 girls each, will play a fanfare under the north goal post. Then, it will step off to the tune, "Auld Lang Syne," in march time down the field to the center where two files of girls will align themselves by the 40 yard stripes. When the band goes in to "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here," the girls will spell out, in large letters, "Welcome to the Sidelines." Following this the student body of Stanislaus with the Alma Mater. The girls will spell out "Welcome Alumni." At the conclusion of the Alma Mater, the band in march time again, will blow out "Our Boys Will Shine Tonight," and move from the center of the field to the 40 yard line close to the side lines. Their former position will be occupied by the five remaining files of girls who will march down while the band is getting into their new position.

DUSTER DANCE

With the 114 girls in place, the band will strike up the "King Cotton" march by Philip Sousa and the entire group of girls will put on a colorful display called the "Duster Dance." At the end of this the band and the girls will leave the field to the strains of Parade Routine, by Paul Yoder.

The St. Joseph students in this show have been trained by, and are under the direction of, Miss Sybil Koeniger, physical education teacher at the Academy, and their moderator, Sister Julia Marie.

Miss Favre will go to Jackson Friday, October 13, to compete against other district winners for the state title as "Queen of the Forest." She will ride in a colorful "forests and forest products" parade which will be followed by the judging for the queen. The contest is sponsored by the Mississippi Forestry commission to bring attention to fire prevention in the state.

Chancellor Lester Clark acted as master of ceremonies at the coronation. He introduced the contestants individually and then presented Ralph Mays, publicity director of the forest service; C. H. Morgan, district forest ranger for the Southeast district; and Alfred Moore, president of the Hattiesburg Lions club.

Prior to the football game, the Lions club entertained the 14 contestants at a banquet held at the Forrest hotel. The girls were guests of the college at the football game.

Second place winner was Miss Barbara Tucker, 16, of Brooklyn, representing Forrest County. Jackie Garrett, 16, a majorette at Pearl River Junior College was third; and fourth place went to Miss Laura Cuevas of Perkinson. Judges for the contest were George Causey, Mrs. Ernestine Lowrey and Robert Avenel.

In a vacation hearing before Chancellor D. M. Russell Saturday, September 30, the former Mayor and Board of Commissioners and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company were ordered to pay to the City of Bay St. Louis, $37,499.80.

A suit had been filed August 20, 1949 by Carl N. Craig, State Auditor and the City of Bay St. Louis against G. Y. Blaize, Mayor, now deceased, and Commissioner of Finance, W. L. Bourgeois, and Commissioner of Utilities, H. Grady Perkins.

The amount of $37,499.80 ordered repaid to the City of Bay St. Louis, is in addition to $11,410.09 repaid by W. L. Bourgeois, former Tax Collector, on April 18, 1949, when the State Auditing Department began the audit of the books of the City.

PART OF $90,000. DEMAND

The amount ordered repaid by Chancellor D. M. Russell is a part of a $90,000.00 demand set out in the suit filed by the State Auditor and the present officials of the City of Bay St. Louis, wherein the former officials of the City of Bay St. Louis were charged with the mis-handling of the funds of said City during their tenure in office.

A part of the demand made was for $29,000.00 bond issue for streets which it was alleged has been expended without any benefit to the City, and another claim was for $14,000.00 in steel pipe given to the City by the Federal Government after the 1947 hurricane, which the records of the City reveal had later been sold to a New Orleans firm.

Each of these claims were ruled out by the Chancellor, leaving the recovery primarily to alleged shortages of W. L. Bourgeois, as Tax Collector, and for the purchase of certain items such as bath tubs, fireworks, fishing equipment, and other articles from which the City derived no benefit.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

The Decree of the Court ordered the funds to be distributed to the City of Bay St. Louis in the following manner: $19,749.80 into the Special Improvement Fund for the purpose of repairing City Streets and other like purposes; $5,000.00 into the Water Works Fund; $5,000.00 into the Municipal Separate School Fund; $2,250.00 to cover charges of the State Auditing Department in making the audit.

$1,000.00 into the General Fund of the City to pay Francis J. Bopp, City Auditor, for making an audit in addition to the years covered by the State Auditing Department; $4,500 to be paid to the Attorneys representing the State Auditing Department and the City of Bay St. Louis in the recovery of the money.

LISTS LIABILITIES

In adjudicating the amount of the recovery, the court decree listed more than $35,000.00 of liabilities against W. L. Bourgeois as Tax Collector and the remainder against the three officials as mayor and commissioners.

Total Recovery $48,999.89

The recovery of this amount by the present City Officials and the State Auditing Department against the former City Officials of Bay St. Louis, makes a total of $49,999.89.

The City of Bay St. Louis was represented by Dan M. Russell, Jr., City Attorney; and the firms of Creekmore and Creekmore, and Forest B. Jackson, of Jackson, Mississippi, represented the State Auditing Department.

The firms representing the former officials of the City of Bay St. Louis and the U. S. F. & G. were Mize, Thompson and Mize and George R. Smith of Gulfport, Mississippi, Gex & Gex of Bay St. Louis and Covington and Snow of Meridian, Mississippi.

Advance In Southern Industry Shown At Rotary

Recent advances in southern agriculture and industry were graphically displayed in a motion picture shown at the weekly meeting of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club. The film produced by a group of southern power companies is designed to bring new industry to the South.

Homer Gregory, program chairman, secured the film from the Mississippi Power Company. Mr. Gregory said that the film was produced primarily for distribution outside the South, but it would also be available to local groups on request.

A JOB WELL DONE

The action of the Board of Supervisors Monday morning repealing their order recommending Francis Lee for the position of probation officer for Hancock County, which had been adopted at a former meeting, and adopting an order abolishing the office, truly typifies the influence of women in public affairs.

The naming of Mr. Lee, who has had no experience in this type of work, stirred a hornet's nest in the women's organizations of the county; and they lost no time in making their objections heard. Letters, telephone calls and telegrams went forth to Judge D. M. Russell, Chancellor of the district, expressing their disapproval. To bring their message from the various groups they represented a number of women appeared before the board Monday morning and expressed in no uncertain terms their stand in the matter.

This brings very forcibly to mind the saying that "In union there is strength." It could not have been more typically exemplified. And, too, the action of these courageous women should set our men to shame. They were organized and not afraid to express their views publicly in an open meeting. They represented the mothers, and theirs was a just cause. They were leading a fight to preserve the youth of our county.

The accomplishment of their mission should be a fore-runner in the building of a spirit of unity among the men of this county. There is much able leadership in Hancock County, but apparently, the fear of retaliation, the ever appearing and threatening ghost, continues to cause a house divided. Of all time for sound thinking to take its proper place in our midst, it is now. There is no need for fear to enter our being when we pursue a righteous cause.

Men in public office appreciate the interest of the people they represent in matters affecting their welfare. There should be more of it. These men realize, after all, that they, too, are human; and in many instances, they are craving for advice, which, above all, should be given in a constructive manner. The action of the Board bears this out.

So, to both, the women of Hancock County and the members of the Board of Supervisors, we wish to extend our congratulations for a job well done.

STANISLAUS LOSES 56 TO 0

The Rock-A-Chaws of St. Stanislaus journeyed to Bogalusa last Friday night to meet the Lumberjacks and came back on the short end of a 56-0 score.

The Lumberjacks, playing their fourth game of the year, found the Rock Line too hard to go through with the result that Cliff Stringfield, Bogalusa's All-State quarter-back took to the air, and that was the game.

Bogalusa kicked off to Stanislaus, and on the first series of downs, Rooney fumbled, and Bogalusa recovered.

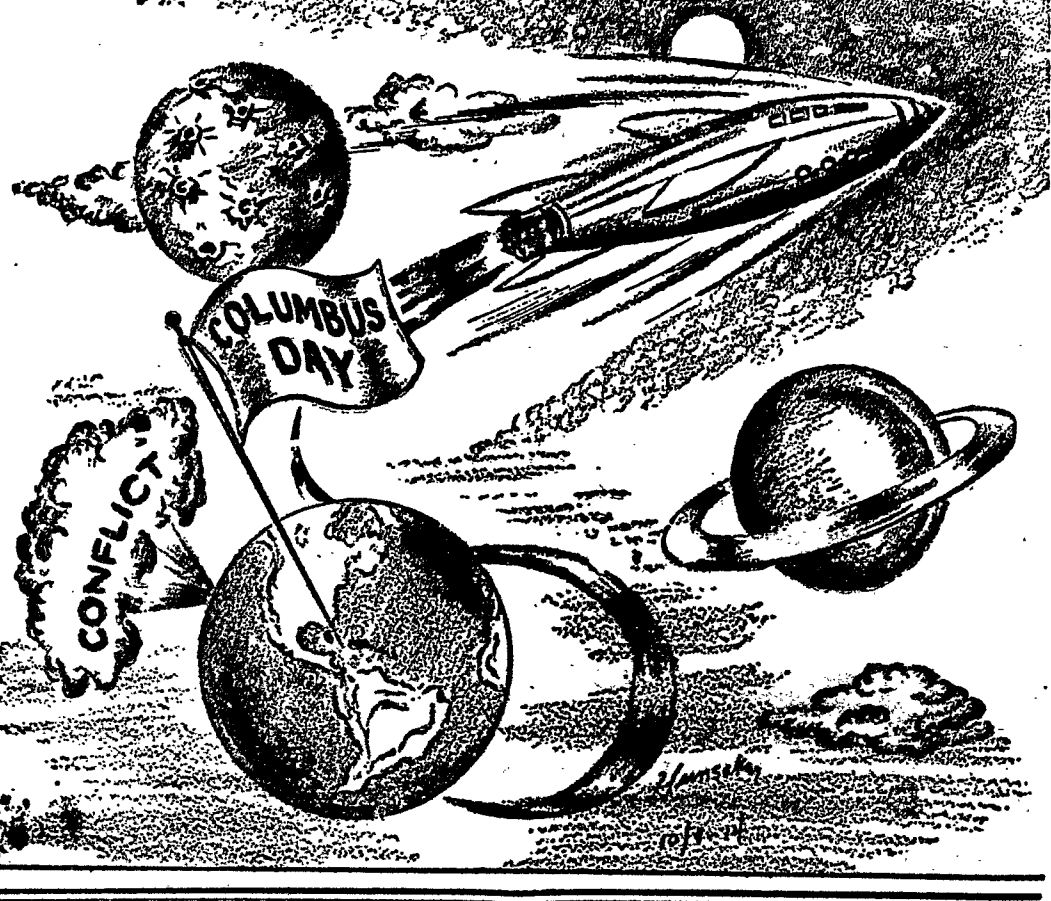

The Rocks held and Stringfield kicked to Holmes on the five; he returned it to the fifteen. The Rocks were forced to kick and Huvar's punt, slithered off the side of his foot and went out on the Rockchaw 30. Stringfield tried two plays in the line that were stopped and then dropped back and hit Sheridan with a pass for the first of the eight Bogalusa TD's. Stringfield converted the first of his eight conversions for the night.

The Lumberjacks kicked off again and the Rocks and the Jacks pushed back and forth until they were on the last down. Northworthy, Lumberjack end, broke through and blocked the kick and grabbed the ball and ran for a second TD. The first quarter ended, 14-0 in favor of the Jacks.

The Lumberjacks scored their third and only TD through the Rock line during the second period. The half time score was 21-0. Stanislaus held the Jacks scoreless until two minutes remained in the third quarter when Stanislaus has a young group of boys, a young group of fighting boys who intend to mark several of the remaining games in the win column. The entire team played as well as they could but the Jacks' experience, depth and size were just too much.

First string end, Terry Gabb, received a broken nose and first string guard, D. J. Luc, received a badly bruised jaw for the major injuries. Fullback Rooney has a wrenched knee; Al Burns, first string offensive tackle, re-injured his forearm in practice Monday. Despite the injuries, the Rocks are confident they will get into the win side of the column this Sunday when they meet the S. J. Peters Wildcats of New Orleans in their homecoming game. Don't sell the Rocks short.

Pass Hi Trounces Carriere, 32 to 0

Pass Christian.—Every member on the 32-man squad of the Pass Christian High school team had an opportunity to play in the game Friday night, September 29, when the Pirates defeated Carriere High of Pearl River County 32 to 0.

Coach Norman Hall's boys lost their opener two weeks ago, and retaliated with an overwhelming victory on their home field.

The third play of the game brought a score for the Pirates. Quarterback Donald Manuel turned the kickoff to his own 40, and fullback Troy Howell ripped off 25 yards to the visitors' 35. Manuel skirted left end for the touchdown. The attempted conversion, as did the next two, failed.

Howell, with the assistance of Gordon Scooper, making a 25 yard punt off right tackle, struck pay dirt again in the first quarter.

An aerial attack in fading seconds of the first half scored the third touchdown for the Pirates. A 35 yard pass from Manuel to Howell put the platoon on the visitors' 35 yard stripe from here Manuel hit Scooper with a 10 yard pass and Scooper scampered the remaining 25 yards to score. Midway in the third quarter the Pirates' next touchdown came as Manuel, standing on his own 45, flipped a 15 yard pass to right end J. Brownlee who scampered down the sideline for 40 yards to score. Scooper went over for the extra point.

The final tally was picked up by the Pirates in the fourth quarter run setting the ball on Carriere's with fullback Howell's 50-yard TD. A line play moved it to the 20. Manuel picked up nine yards and W. Snyder circled left and for the score. Manuel scooped the extra point around end.

With the Pass reserves playing most of the third quarter, Carriere made their only appreciable offensive thrust with J. Skipper and J. Davis ripping off 10 and 19 yard sprints, respectively.

Tree Planting in Machine Age

Further proof that trees are a crop and tree farming is a form of agriculture is this mechanical tree planter. The machine enables two men to plant as many seedling trees in a day as 10 men, working with hand tools, can do. This nearly barren field, in a few years, will yield a cash wood crop. This is tree farming southern style.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Develop New Rat And Mouse Poison

By HOWARD SIMMONS

Late in June of this year agencies of the federal government officially sanctioned the release of a new rat and mouse poison for public use. It was christened "Warfarin," thus carrying the initials of its proud patent parent, the Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation. The poison is a development of Dr. Karl Paul Link and associates of the Department of Biochemistry University of Wisconsin.

Warfarin went through about two years of intensive experimental use under practical field conditions as well as laboratory trials. Tested on farms and urban properties in practically all parts of the United States, it proved effective in destroying rats, which are well distributed in all parts of this country. In house mouse control, tests of Warfarin showed it to be a little slow in reducing infestations, but it has done well enough to rate highly as a lethal agent.

Warfarin introduces an entirely new concept of poisoning in rat and mouse control, namely, multiple doses need to be taken in only small amounts each day for a period of about five days. If an animal should skip a day it will only postpone the time of death, but if a few days elapse between feedings it may permit recovery and a new start is necessary to develop the condition responsible for death. Warfarin prevents the clotting of blood. No effect is felt by a rat or mouse for the first few days, but after the third to fifth day of daily doses, internal hemorrhage develops and the animal weakens and dies. They apparently do not associate their "illness" with the poisoned food they have eaten, which is a common fault of most other poisons taken in sublethal doses. Therefore, it is doubly important to mix Warfarin with food in the recommended proportion. There's no need to add a little more than directed on the package to make a stronger mixture.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
Improved buildings and equipment on a farm, which often stand for years of hard work, can be lost in a few minutes through a fire caused by carelessness.

And nine out of ten fires which kill 3,500 American farm people each year, as well as causing a hundred million dollar loss, are preventable.

To prevent fires, and to provide defense against fire which might occur in spite of precautions, is the aim of national Fire Prevention Week, October 8 - 14. While fire prevention will be emphasized at this time, it is a 365 day task.

Inspect the farm and remove fire hazards, and keep on making regular inspections throughout the year, not just during Fire Prevention Week.

The inspection should cover the following places:
Get rid of all rubbish inside the house and clean up any dried grass and weeds near buildings, along fence rows and other places. Store gasoline and kerosene away from the main building. Use cleaning fluids that will not explode.

Make sure that everyone smokes safely. Do not allow any smoking in bed, barn, attics or closets.

Protect buildings with properly installed, and well maintained lightning rods.

Combustible roofs are a major farm hazard. The roof should be of fire retardant material.

Chimneys and heating apparatus cause many farm fires. Clean chimneys and heaters at least once a year, and make sure they are properly installed.

Misuse of electricity is another leading farm fire cause. Wiring and appliances should be installed by competent electricians. Keep motors clean, replace frayed wiring and use fuses of proper size.

Mississippi's Master Tree Planters

By J. G. Guthrie, Forestry Agent
Illinois Central Railroad

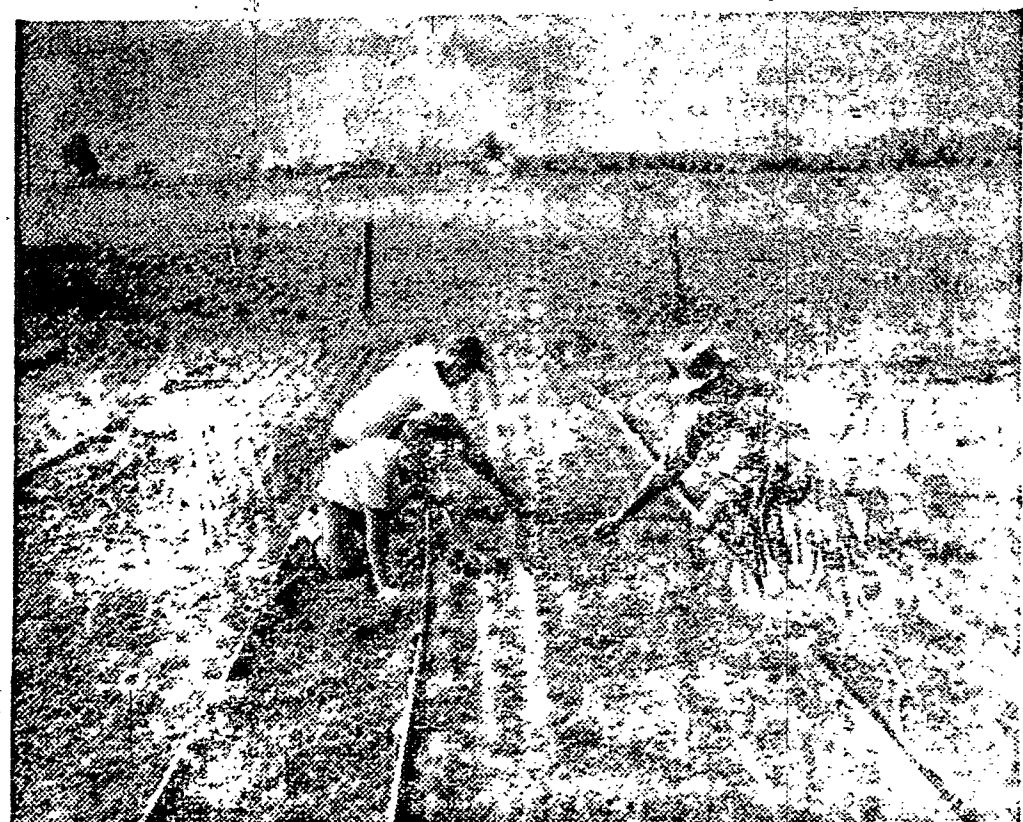

Crawford Smith of western Stone County, Miss., instigated an ambitious tree-planting program on his land, after observing the outstanding growth of young pine trees on his brother's land. In 1944 he and his two sons Olson and Autley purchased over 700 acres of barren pine-land and they have been planting trees there ever since.

Crawford Smith lives on a 35-acre farm, purchased in 1911 and keeps 25 acres in crops. His son Olson moved to his own 86-acre farm about a quarter of a mile away in 1936.

In 1945 Olson's young sons, Arnold and Buford, then 8 and 10 years old planted 100 Slash Pine trees as part of their 4-H Club Forestry Project on one acre near their home. These pines have grown so rapidly, they ed many Slash Pine cones from the surrounding countryside in the fall of 1949. These were spread on wire mesh with cloth beneath and allowed to dry in the sun. As the cones dried, they opened and released their seeds which fell to the cloth below and made collecting easy. Twelve pounds of seed was obtained in this manner and stored in airtight containers until spring. Seed beds were prepared in the late part of March and after sowing the beds were covered with a layer of pine straw to protect them from birds and drying winds. The Smiths have done an exemplary job and were successful in getting 25,000 to 30,000 tree seedlings for planting this fall.

A few old trees left by the loggers when virgin timber was cut many years ago are still on the Smith's land. These trees are now serving as seed trees, but are only reseeding part of the area. They are also being used for turpentine ever since John Cross, U. S. D. A. Turpentine Specialist has taught the Smiths how to turpentine their trees. This has proved to be a cash crop while waiting for the new young seedlings to grow. The Smiths have 2,800 gum faces and have become the interest of the entire community. The Smiths have continued planting trees each year, planting 10,000 in 1946; 3,000 in 1947; 35,000 in 1948 and 108,000 in 1949.

The large number of trees planted during the last two years was made possible by using the Illinois Central Tree-Planter. One of the early demonstrations of this planter by IC foresters took place on the Smith's land in 1948. The Smiths then used the machine to finish planting their seedling trees which total 35,000 that year.

Planting during 1949 was done with a model of the Illinois Central tree-planter owned by the Dantzer Lumber Co. for the purpose of loaning it to small land owners like the Smiths, enabling them to reforest idle waste-land.

Another such tree planter was purchased by the Bank of Wiggins, located in Wiggins, the county seat, for the free use of farmers and land-owners. This bank was one of the first in the south to purchase a tree planter and Stone County farmers are exceedingly fortunate in having two planters available for their free use.

Even with the large number of tree seedlings planted in the last two years, the Smiths reasoned it would take several years to re-forest their lands with only existing seedling supplies available. Being of an enterprising nature, they decided to do something about it. But what could they do? They started their own tree nursery. First they gather-

MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION REGARDING "TEACHERS' DAY"

Honorable Francis J. Hursay, Mayor of the city of Pass Christian, issued a proclamation setting aside October 7-15 as HOSPITALITY WEEK for teachers. The Mayor's proclamation is evidence of the city's intentions to observe a statewide celebration of October as Parent "Teachers' Day" as set forth in Governor Fielding L. Wright's proclamation issued earlier.

The schools, churches, civic clubs and homes will all be a part in this meritorious celebration. Grade school children are busy preparing "Teachers' Day" posters which will be displayed prominently in business establishments all over the city.

Dr. C. D. Taylor, president of the Rotary Club, has announced that the Rotary will be host at a reception to be given Sunday, October 15, at the Pass Christian Yacht Club.

Teachers will receive many attentions from public school children and their parents during this time.

On Sunday, October 15, churchgoers will hear sermons having a teachers day theme.

Mrs. E. A. Allen, president of the P. T. A. said, "It is heart warming to see the beautiful demonstration of appreciation being given our fine teachers. Everyone seems eager to have a part in Pass Christian public school system and admiration and respect for its faculty."

MISS FITZPATRICK RESIGNS

Miss Katie Fitzpatrick, postmistress of Pass Christian, is retiring following many years of faithful service. Miss Katie has been the postmistress for the past nineteen and one-half years, since April, 1931.

PASS ROTARY DEFEATS BAY

The softball game Tuesday night saw the Pass Christian Rotarians pitted against the Bay St. Louis Rotarians.

The game was enjoyed by all who attended and the Pass Rotary Club emerged victorious with a score of 23 to 18.

The proceeds from the game will go towards the Rotarians' fund to fund their Christmas program.

The Rotary Club met Tuesday noon with Dr. C. D. Taylor presiding.

A prize was awarded to Donald Shepherd as the visiting Rotarian from the farthest distance. Other visitors were Dr. R. C. Stewart, who has purchased the old Bidwell Adam home on East Beach and recently moved to the Pass from New York; and Larry Ried, of St. Joseph's high school, the high school rotarian for the month.

The program was a discussion and planning for the softball game Tuesday evening.

The boys' and girls' basketball teams from St. Joseph high school played their first game in Iberville Wednesday night. The teams are being trained by Coach Jimmie Edward.

The Women's Civic League sponsored a bingo and canasta party Wednesday evening, October 4, at the Miramar hotel. The proceeds from the evening will be used in the League's clean up campaign. The league plans to purchase waste cans to place in town.

League president, Mrs. Elena Fitzpatrick, stated that she would like to express her appreciation to the members and to the general public for making the night a success.

Mrs. Avery Allen, Jr., and her young son, Bobby, have returned to the Pass following a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Doyle, in Natchez, Mississippi. There will be many lovely crafts and works on sale at reasonable prices, some of which will be quilts, shell craft, aprons, and other nice articles that will make splendid Christmas gifts.

Marty Farrell of Shreveport, Louisiana, arrived home Tuesday evening to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Maggie Farrell, in her home on East Second street.

Jack Kohl left this week for Guam where he will be a civilian employee of the U. S. Government. Mr. Kohl was the former owner of the Gibbons feed store in the Pass.

Lions Bernard Hayden and David Wainwright served as scout masters at the Tuesday night meeting of Scout Troop 215 in the absence of the regular scout master, Mr. Kohl.

Cooper Farragut and Joe Moran spent the weekend visiting Mrs. John Ruta and Mrs. Leo Krebs, Cooper's aunts, in Pascagoula, Mississippi.

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre has scored again with a delightful little comedy, "The Late Christopher Bean", by Sidney Howard. "The Late Christopher Bean" is a story of a drunken artist who dies in poverty and obscurity. Ten years after his death he is finally "discovered" and his pictures are worth a fortune. As it happens a Dr. Haggett and his family are in possession of a number of Chris Bean's paintings completely unaware of their value. When a number of art vultures descend upon the doctor's peaceful household a series of complications develop which are the basis of the play.

An actor in a minor role can often steal the show. This happened last night when Joseph Huber, as the unscrupulous art dealer, walked onto the stage. Huber's role was perhaps the best cast and acted in the play.

The lead was played by Phil Allison as Dr. Haggett. Allison, who is a capable actor, handled his role well; however, at times it appeared that he could have been a little better. Mrs. Vicki Lennox Hill, as the doctor's wife, fitted her part well. Mrs. Hill seemed to be guilty of a little over acting at times, but not enough to hurt her part.

Mrs. Virginia Smith and Mrs. Lee Esau played the Haggett girls without any apparent difficulty. Mrs. Juanita Miller was quite good as Abby, the maid. Though Mrs. Miller got off to a slow start, she turned in one of the evening's better performances.

The art critic, Davenport, was played by N. L. Carter. Carter as the suave art critic was well suited for his small but important role. Outside of being a little nervous at times, Dr. Harold Keefe did quite well as the forger, Tallant.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pepperdine and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cameron and young Leslie Pepperdine spent Tuesday in McComb, Mississippi, on a sight-seeing and pleasure outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noto had a few friends in on Saturday evening to enjoy a shrimp boil at their home on DeMonturzin avenue. Oil Progress Week To Be Celebrated In Mississippi

Mississippi, along with the rest of the nation, will pause the week of October 15th-21st to pay special tribute to the oil industry as Oil Progress Week is celebrated.

Plans for observing this special event in Jackson and Mississippi have been announced by E. J. Reynolds, state manager of Standard Oil Company of Kentucky and Mississippi Chairman of the Oil Industries Information Committee.

In cities all over the state, programs have been scheduled to mark the industry's growth and importance to the state and nation's welfare.

All phases of the petroleum industry will take part in these activities as producers, refiners, transporters and marketers join together to point out that more than 120 products used in modern day life, from gasoline to plastics, come from petroleum.

Largest meeting in Mississippi will be the one in Jackson on Wednesday evening, October 18th when over 100 oil men and their guests will gather to hear an after dinner speech by Mr. J. Rathbone, a director of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Before joining Standard of New Jersey in 1949, Mr. Rathbone was for five years president of Esso Standard Oil Company at Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Prior to that time he had served the Esso Company in many other capacities, having joined them soon after the first World War.

While at the Baton Rouge refinery he was responsible for many innovations in petroleum refining and it was at this refinery that synthetic rubber from petroleum was first produced on a commercial scale.

Other officers of the Mississippi Oil Industries Information Committee serving with Mr. Reynolds are J. P. Evans, president of the Mississippi-Alabama division of Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, alternate chairman; Ross P. Dodds, Lion Oil Company, vice-chairman and Reese Oliver, vice-president for Mississippi for the Independent Petroleum Association of America, alternate vice-chairman.

Proclamation Employ the Physically Handicapped Week

Whereas the nation, by act of Congress has set aside the first week of October of each year as a time for observance of "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week"; and

Whereas the State of Mississippi, by proclamation of Governor Fielding L. Wright, will again observe "Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" as part of the national campaign and as a period for emphasis on the year-round program promulgated in 1947; and

Whereas the citizens of Bay St. Louis, being aware of the importance of such a campaign to this community, realize fully the urgent need of rehabilitating and employing those of our fellow citizens who have acquired physical handicaps; and

Whereas, handicapped workers have demonstrated over and over again that they possess offsetting attributes which make them highly desirable workers when properly placed on jobs that utilize their abilities; and

Whereas, the employers of Bay St. Louis have an opportunity to assist in this national effort to rehabilitate otherwise qualified workers; and

Whereas, all these physically handicapped workers want to work on jobs in which they may become self-supporting and independent citizens of our community.

Now, therefore, I, Warren Carver, mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis, do hereby proclaim and set aside the week of October 1-7, as Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and I request all

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

Replacing Food With Confections Is Harmful

By MISS MADGE ALLRED

Replacing food with confections may lead to heart disease, diabetes, digestive disorders and emotional disturbances. Protect the health of your children by seeing that they have a well balanced diet.

Candy and soft drinks may lead to fat or undernourished children. A recent survey by a county health department revealed that five to seven percent of the preschool children were suffering from malnutrition.

Do not teach a child that candy is good by using it as a reward; when doing this you are undermining the health of your child. An excessive amount of sugar is not only harmful to the teeth but to the general health as well.

As a guide to the sugar content of various commodities the following information will prove helpful: cola drinks, 6 ounce bottle contains 4 1/5 teaspoons of sugar; a chocolate candy bar contains 13 teaspoons; ice cream, 5 1/2 teaspoons; orange sherbert, 7 teaspoons and an average slice of a two-layer chocolate cake contains 7 1/2 teaspoons of sugar.

FLOWERS

Now is the time to plant seeds of some flowers for early spring blooming. A simple frame made from a wooden box and covered with glass will make an excellent place to start Pansies, California Poppies, Coreopsis, Larkspur, Candytuft, Baby's breath, Canterbury Bell, Wallflower, Aster Viola and Pinks.

A Girl For Colsons

Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. Colson announce the birth of a daughter, Vicki Jeanne Sunday, September 24, at Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Colson is the former Miss Yvonne Roberts of this city.

City officials, employers, civic, religious and social organizations within its municipal boundaries to aid in every possible manner in bringing to the attention of the whole population that handicapped workers are capable of performing thousands of different jobs.

And I urge all employers to survey their plants, stores, and offices to determine what jobs may be filled by handicapped persons and to place these openings with the Mississippi State Employment Service, which has been established as a free job-finding and filling public service for the benefit of employers and workers.

And I further urge all Good Citizens of Bay St. Louis to bear in mind that the problem of handicapped workers is a continuing one all year round, and as such, merits the consideration of all of us fifty-two weeks a year.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the seal of the City of Bay St. Louis to be affixed.

WARREN CARVER, Mayor
City of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

MEC Grass - Roots Leadership Forum

It is fairly common these days to hear people express concern over the future of our state and nation. The majority of the remarks you hear are rather pessimistic, with the general conclusion being that the future looks pretty much like a fathomless pit.

What's wrong with the county? Frankly, we doubt if anyone has a short, concise answer. One thing is certain. Folks at the grass-roots have given the so-called "experts," in every field of political, social, and economic life, enough power to bring about a solution—and thus far they haven't found it. The more power and authority folks at the grass-roots give the "experts," the more contradictions we have coming from Washington and the powers that be.

Therefore, its welcome news when we hear that a grass-roots leadership forum will be held in our area within a short time. The Mississippi Economic Council, an organization composed of a good cross-section of the state's best leadership, is sponsoring such a forum in Gulfport on October 18th. We understand results of some factual studies on Mississippi will be presented, and after the problems are presented, the audience will have a chance to ask questions and give its opinions on the subjects. It is a fine thing to do, and the forum deserves the attendance of every person interested in "doing something about" the condition we find ourselves in today.

The forum is not expected to find a panacea for all our troubles. But the MEC is to be commended for encouraging grass-roots leadership to express itself. Enough such forums, held throughout the land, might give our often-discussed governmental leaders, a better idea as to how to steer us so safe ground. The answers to all our problems can't be found in Washington. They've tried and failed. While it still has the opportunity, grass-roots leadership should shoulder its responsibility and speak its mind.

William C. Carter, Harrison County Chairman, presided at the planning conference. Among those attending were: Howard F. Simmons, Dan Russell, Jr., H. W. LeTissier, and Homer Gregory.

A Grandson for Commanders

Mr. and Mrs. Linsey Evans announce the birth of an eight pound son, September 23, at the Baptist Hospital in New Orleans.

V. F. W. Discusses Major Issues at Meet

In one of the most serious minded gatherings of war veterans ever held in Mississippi, the Council of Administration of the Mississippi Veterans of Foreign Wars Sunday, in a business meeting here, discussed all of the major issues confronting the world today and then passed strongly worded resolutions pertaining to many of them.

In a resolution unanimously adopted by the overseas veteran organization, they bitterly condemned the policy of influential citizens requesting the aid of Congressmen and Senators in securing deferments from military service. With a copy of the resolution going to the seven Congressmen and two Senators from Mississippi, each local draft board and the state board of appeals, the veterans asked that the nine lawmakers join hands in a solemn vow not to intercede in any manner with any case involving military service. E. K. Collins of Laurel, department commander of the state VFW, stressed the Community Service Program of his organization which was being put into effect from the post to the national level this year. Mr. Collins said, "In carrying out this program, the Veterans of Foreign Wars will do its utmost to see that there are no hungry children or impoverished families anywhere. Too little heed is given to the fact that although ours is the richest nation on earth, with an abundance of everything that is needed to bring happiness, health and contentment to its people, untold thousands of our fellow citizens are forced to eke out an existence under conditions that are shameful, to say the least.

"To these people, Communism has its greatest appeal. It is to them that Communism reaches out with the promises of better living standards. It behooves us as Americans, to reach them first, not with mere promises, but with immediate and positive action," the VFW leader pointed out.

The commander said the national headquarters of the VFW was awarding $35,000.00 in prizes this year to the VFW Post and Auxiliary chapters as an inducement for them to launch into community service projects that would prove beneficial to their respective communities.

Chauncey Camp, Regional Director of the Veterans Administration in the state, addressed the VFW gathering and discussed the district meetings of service officers being held throughout the state, and added that the VA had prepared for distribution a Service Officer's Guide which will be given each service officer attending these meetings.

John E. Aldridge, of Winona, as senior vice commander of the VFW discussed the membership plans and organization for the ensuing year and predicted a successful year despite the fact that many posts were being temporarily ruined because post officers and members were being recalled to active military service. Lucedale and Senatobia were examples where this situation had already occurred.

The meeting also reiterated their stand that veterans in the Korean fighting should be taken into the organization, however, the delay was due to the fact that Congress had not declared the incident a military campaign which was one of the requirements for VFW membership.

The VFW council also voted that a message of condolence be sent the family of the late Governor Mike Conner, who had done so much for the state during his public service career.

Mrs. McDonald To Attend Conference

Mrs. J. C. Burrow, of Columbia, has been nominated to represent the Training School Board and the churches of Mississippi at the Midcentury White House Conference on Children and Youth, scheduled to be held in Washington on December 3-7, 1950, inclusive. Other prominent individuals from the Southern area who have been nominated include Mrs. Alexander F. Chisholm, of Laurel, an outstanding leader in community activities; Mrs. L. W. Alston, of Hattiesburg, who will represent the Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers; Willis Horne, of Laurel, state 4-H President, who will represent the high school youth of the state; and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, of Bay St. Louis, who will represent the State Welfare Board.

These individuals, as were a number of delegates from other sections of Mississippi, were nominated on the basis of their respective contributions to the children's program in the months preceding the calling of the 1950 White House Conference.

Mrs. Thad J. Ryan, chairman of the Mississippi Committee on Children and Youth, when releasing the names of the Mississippians who will participate in the Conference, stated the primary purpose in selecting these prominent Mississippians springs from the fact that an effort is being made to take the ideas of Main Street in our towns and the thoughts of the cross roads in our rural areas to the very door of the White House where problems of youth will be considered by psychiatrists, pediatricians, educators, social workers and individual citizens from the grass roots of America.

Mr. Herschel Saucier, Executive Secretary of the Mississippi Committee on Children and Youth, explained that the first White House Conference was called in 1909 by President Roosevelt. The purpose—"to center the hearts and minds of the nation upon the country's greatest and most precious resource—its children." It was in 1930, Mr. Saucier explained, that a White House Conference brought forth the "Children's Charter which Mr. Saucier explained, provides the basic upon which greater health and happiness can be developed for the children of the world.

Other delegates to the 1950 White House Conference from Mississippi include: Mrs. Thad J. Ryan, Jackson; Judge Thomas Minniece, Meridian; Mrs. Earl Brickell, Indianola; Judge S. B. Thomas, Greenville; Miss Elizabeth Marks, Jackson; Mr. Herschel Saucier, Jackson; Mr. J. O. Snowden, Marks; Mr. J. M. Tubbs, Jackson; Mrs. C. C. Clark, Crystal Springs; Miss Sara P. Ricks, Jackson; Rev. Bishop Gerow, Jackson; Mr. George Kurtz, Jackson; Mrs. Sam McCorkle, Grenada; Dr. Virginia Downes, Jackson; Mrs. P. M. Establish Coordinated Nursing School

University, Miss., Sept. 29. Nursing education in Mississippi took a big step forward this week when the Board of Trustees for Institutions of Higher Learning approved an arrangement between the University of Mississippi, the Meridian Junior College and three Meridian hospitals for establishing a coordinated school of nursing in Meridian.

Through agreement between the Anderson Infirmary, Matty Hospital, Rush Memorial and the University, the university will provide college level instruction for students in the three-year nursing program who enroll in the Meridian division of the Ole Miss Department of Nursing.

The first year of instruction will be given by the Meridian Junior College in the basic sciences and other foundation course concomitant with clinical instruction in the three hospitals. In the second and third years, students will receive clinical experience in the three hospitals and other health agencies under the supervision of the university faculty and the administrative nurse of each affiliated hospital.

The hospitals will issue diplomas for completion of the three-year course, and the Meridian Junior College and the university also can issue certificates upon satisfactory completion of the course work. The university then will be available to the graduate nurses for further study toward the degree of bachelor of science in nursing. Credit toward this degree will be granted for work done at the Meridian Junior College.

The university, according to the agreement, will pay the salaries of the coordinator and faculty members for the nursing program. Each hospital will supply a qualified assistant clinical instructor, as well as maintain their regular clinical instruction. Activities of the nurses registered under the program, such as rotation of instruction, withdrawal, and other administrative affairs will be handled by representatives of the hospitals and the coordinator.

Coordinator for the participating schools and hospitals will be Mrs. Nellie T. English, formerly educational director of the Columbia Hospital, Columbia, S. C. Mrs. English holds the bachelor of arts degree from Winthrop College and the master of arts degree from Columbia University. She received her nursing diploma from the Telfair Hospital School of Nursing. Mrs. English was a member of the Navy Nurse Corps during World War II.

The program, which will involve about 125 nursing students, was developed by a committee of 16 people representing the participating agencies and to a great extent through the combined efforts of Dr. H. M. Ivy, superintendent of the Meridian Public Schools, Martin Stegana, of the Meridian Junior College, and Miss Christine Oglevee, director of the University of Mississippi Department of Nursing.

Participating in the establishment of the program which was presented to the Board of Trustees were Dr. E. R. Jobe, executive secretary of the Board; Dr. J. D. Williams, chancellor of the University of Mississippi; Dr. D. V. Galoway, director of the Mississippi Commission on Hospital Care; Miss Phoebe M. Kandel, nurse education consultant for the Mississippi Board of Nurses' Examiners; R. M. Castle, Administrator of Rush Memorial Hospital; Mrs. Nettie Bozeman, business manager of Matty Hospital; Reuben Johnson, administrator of Anderson Infirmary; Mrs. Christine Stultz, director of the School of Nursing at Anderson Infirmary; Miss Audrey King, director of the Mississippi State Division of Public Health Nursing; Dr. David S. Pankratz, dean of the University of Mississippi School of Medicine; and Dr. V. A. Coulter, dean of the university's College of Liberal Arts.

from a health standpoint should move forward rapidly.

This office, with its ramifications extending to Mississippi and other states, will deal with problems involving: (1) mobilization, allocation, and utilization of all personnel necessary for wartime health services; (2) environmental sanitation services; (3) veterinary medical services; (4) utilization of health facilities; (5) provision of all health equipment and supplies; (6) recommendations to assure maintenance of essential teaching and research in these fields.

Governor Receives First U. N. Flag

State College, Miss.—Governor Fielding L. Wright has received one of the first United States flags made by Mississippi Home Demonstration club members for display during United Nations Week, October 16-24, and on future patriotic occasions.

A UN flag in every community is the goal of the modern Betsy Rosses, who are led and assisted by county home demonstration agents and specialists of the Agricultural Extension Service.

Mrs. S. D. Spann, Brandon, president of the Mississippi Home Demonstration Council, composed of 24,000 members, presented the flag to Governor Wright in his office. Witnessing this presentation and offering their assistance in staging an active observance of United Nations Day, October 24, in Mississippi were L. I. Jones, Extension director, and Miss May Cresswell, state home demonstration agent.

The blue and white flag of the United Nations, flying in public places throughout the state, will be a strong reminder of the hope for world peace through the United Nations organization, Miss Cresswell explained.

World peace is symbolized on the UN flag. A white olive branch wreath in the center of the flag surrounds a globe showing the part of the earth where countries belonging to the United Nations are located.

Home demonstration members, after cutting cloth and sewing together the UN flags are arranging for them to be displayed at schools, public buildings and other conspicuous places.

Citizens are being encouraged to fly the UN flag as well as that of the United States during United Nations Week and other patriotic occasions. When the two fly together on a staff, the flag of the United States should be at the top.

In the Clerical Group, examinations will be held for Accounting Clerk, Principal Stenographer, Senior Stenographer and Junior Stenographer. The recent adoption of an increased compensation schedule makes these positions much more attractive to persons desiring to make Welfare work a career.

All of these positions are under the Merit System which provides for regular increases in salary at six month intervals until the maximum is reached and also for vacations and sick leave. All persons desiring to make application to take examinations for any of these positions should contact their County Welfare office or call at the Merit System Supervisor, P. O. Box 647, Jackson, Mississippi. The closing date for filing applications for these examinations is October 14, 1950. The date and places at which the examinations will be held will be announced soon after all applications are received.

Renew Expired Drivers' Licenses Now

"All persons learning to drive must secure learner's permit," says Highway Patrol.

Highway Patrol officials stated, "A number of persons are teaching their boys and girls, and adults as well, to drive on the streets and highways of Mississippi without securing the necessary Learner's Permit, as required by Law.

Learner's Permits may be secured from any Drivers License Examiner, after passing the necessary written test. If you want to learn to drive, see your Examiner, get a Driver's Handbook, study it, and when you have received your Learner's Permit, this entitles you to drive while in the car with a licensed driver. After you have practiced to the point where you think you can pass the driving test, you may again go to the Examiner for your final test, and when passed, you exchange the permit for your regular license.

All persons taking driving test must have a licensed driver drive them to the Examiner, and car must pass inspection for lights, brakes, horn and windshield wiper. All persons are urged to have a valid driver's license or Learner's Permit if learning. Patrolmen are checking cars every day, and this is one violation which the Patrolmen can't warn for. Get your driver's license now and keep it renewed.

Driver's License may be renewed at any Sheriff's office or City Clerk. Original license or Learner's permit can be secured from Drivers License Examiner. Check with your Sheriff as to when Examiner will be in your city. The cost of your license is $2.00 for two years. Don't delay. The license is cheaper than a fine and embarrassment.

Find Prehistoric Bone At Clinton

Clinton, Miss., Sept. 22—A large bone identified as either the tibia or fibula of a prehistoric mastodon, an elephant-like creature, was unearthed by a Mississippi College geology group near Port Gibson last weekend.

Dr. C. L. Deever, professor of botany at the college, was in charge of the party which tediously excavated the bone, one other unidentified bone section, and other petrified objects.

Weighing about 75 pounds and measuring about 10 feet long and eight inches wide at the narrowest point, the bone was removed in good shape from the farm of Mrs. A. C. McAmis, mother-in-law of Professor Hollis Todd of Mississippi College's Speech Department. Two segments of the bone's smaller end fell apart when it was removed from the earth.

Originally this rare specimen was about ten feet underground until it was partly uncovered by a bulldozer earlier this summer by workmen who were building a dam for a small lake.

According to Dr. Deever, who identified the bone, mastodons moved into this area after being pushed down by the ice during the last glacial period about 25,000 to 30,000 years ago. Bones of a similar nature have been found in Mississippi before, and in every state in the union, Dr. Deever stated. Several museums in large cities have almost complete skeletons of mastodons, he added.

At the present time the bone is being viewed by students and townspeople in Dr. Deever's laboratory in Mississippi College's science building. After it has been studied further, it will be placed on display in the museum of the old Chapel building.

The Herald was the first newspaper in New York to give detailed descriptions of the gowns worn by women at social affairs.

Samuel Adams did most of his effective work in leading the movement for independence by writing for the press.

It is thought that perhaps other bones were either crushed by the bulldozer or remain covered in the vicinity where this find was made. However, Dr. Deever states that no plans are being made now to continue the excavations.

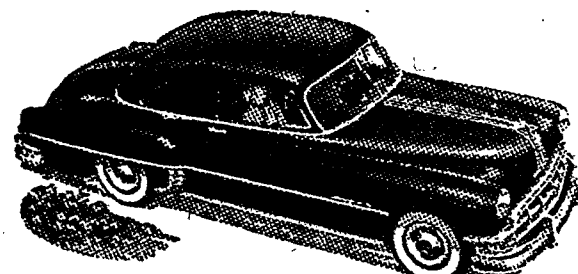

Besides Dr. Deever and his son, Charles II, Mississippi College students who took part in the excavation included: Bill Cassel, Union; Eugene Sample, Benzoni; Junius Turner, Madden; Warren Potts, Jackson; C. P. Fowler, Rose Hill; Hansel Thornton, Becker; Paul Foster, Wesson.

Mississippi Is Still Agriculture State

Mississippi is still predominately an agricultural state, with 73 per cent of her population living either in the country or in centers of less than 2500 persons.

That is one of the factors pointed out in a study just released by the Mississippi Economic Council's research advisory committee, headed by Rex I. Brown, Jackson. The study, entitled "Population Trends in Mississippi," was prepared by Dr. Harald A. Pedersen, Division of Sociology and Rural Life, State College.

Here are some other facts on the state's population trend, as noted by Dr. Pedersen in his study of the preliminary census returns. The increase percentage-wise came in the bigger cities of 10,000 or more persons. Population movements were somewhat uneven throughout the state, but generally the larger increase in urban population came in South Mississippi counties. Reasons for this difference require a great deal more study than has so far been done by any civic or governmental organization. Southern counties as a group gained 10 per cent in population between 1940 and 1950 while in the same period the census shows North Mississippi counties as a group to have lost 7 percent of their people. This loss in the northern counties came almost entirely in the rural areas since urban centers in North Mississippi gained 22 per cent compared to a growth of urban centers in southern counties of 43 per cent.

The pamphlet gives an indication of what population trends will mean in the social and economic development of the state.

Copies can be obtained from the Mississippi Economic Council, P. O. Box 1201, Jackson, Mississippi, without charge.

Help Woody Prevent Fires

...and help yourself, too!

Lookouts, posted in high towers, keep watch over much of our forest land.

But the best they can do is to spot a fire after it has started. They know that that first wisp of smoke may be a conflagration within minutes.

But a far better way to protect our forests is to prevent fires before they start. Most of them can be prevented, because carelessness causes most of them. Be sure your cigarette or match is out before you throw it away.

Don't Be Satisfied With Symptomatic Relief!

HADACOL NOW MAKES IT POSSIBLE TO RELIEVE THE CAUSE OF YOUR SICKNESS

Neuritis Pains, Stomach Disturbances, Indigestion, Gas, Constipation, Certain Nervous Disorders and a General Run-down Condition

When due to lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin in your system!

Read How These Folks Benefitted Who Had Such Deficiencies

Mr. Anhamatien, 4731 South 32nd West Ave., Tulsa 7, Oklahoma, suffered from stomach distress for quite some time. He had spent much money trying everything possible for relief and was in bad health when he started taking HADACOL. He says, "After taking three bottles of the $3.50 size, I've gained 27 pounds and now eat anything I desire and positively have no trouble." (HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it actually relieves the real cause of stomach distress—gas pains, heartburn, indigestion after eating! Due to such deficiencies. And continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent such distress from returning.)

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam, Cincinnati, Ohio. "Before I started taking HADACOL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back and arms. I could hardly move without having those terrible pains. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the second bottle the pains and aches were about gone. I'm now starting my fourth bottle and am on top of the world. I eat well and, best of all, the aches and pains are completely gone." (Mrs. Kitchen is a very smart woman because she relieves the real cause of her neuritis pains due to such deficiencies. HADACOL often brings a wonderful improvement within a few days' time.)

Mrs. J. Scieszinski, 514 Kruger, Ottumwa, Iowa, writes: "My daughter, Marilyn Sue, is 5 years old and for some time lacked pep, had a poor appetite, was generally run-down. Since giving her HADACOL, we have noticed wonderful results. She has a much better appetite, eats everything on the table and doesn't seem tired like she used to. Incidentally, she likes to take HADACOL, too." (HADACOL is a great "builder-upper" for sick, nervous, puny kids whose systems lack precious Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin. A big improvement in their well-being is often noticed within a few days' time after taking the great new HADACOL.)

Mr. Henry Angel, RD No. 1, Springfield, Ohio. "I used to suffer great pain from neuritis aches in all parts of my body, especially in my legs, arms and shoulders. I never got any real relief until I tried HADACOL. After taking several bottles, my pain is all gone. And I'm working every day." (Now there's a smart man! Mr. Angel took HADACOL and relieved the real cause of his neuritis pains because they were due to such deficiencies. HADACOL is helping thousands upon thousands of grateful men and women troubled this way. Why don't you give HADACOL a chance to help you? Start taking it today!)

IMPORTANT! Why don't you get that wonderful HADACOL feeling everyone is talking about? In this modern age, wise folks are no longer satisfied with symptomatic relief. They seek the cause of such deficiency sickness with that wonderful new HADACOL. HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—vital elements every human being must have to maintain good health. You owe it to yourself to give HADACOL a fair trial. Many doctors recommend this great new HADACOL. It's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Trial size, $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50.

Enemy Number Two

It is not difficult to identify today's Enemy Number One. Communism, with the threat of a Third World War, is the slippery serpent that crawls in and out from behind the Iron Curtain.

Enemy Number Two is not so easily identified, but inflation can be as destructive to the economy of a people as war itself. We have seen the disastrous results of it in France, Italy and China.

Already there are federal limitations on credit and appeals being made by those in authority for people to produce in abundance and spend sparingly, that we might escape the evils of inflation.

Running rampant, inflation is as fatal to a country's economy as an army of grasshoppers is to a field of corn. Under hyper-inflation, money loses its purchasing power, savings lose their value and life insurance is sapped of its security.

Though the purchasing power of the dollar has already dwindled, it is still the soundest money on the face of the earth. From every quarter of the globe men seek American dollars for what they will buy in the world's markets.

It may be argued that hoarding goods speeds inflation but hoarded money, kept out of circulation, in your bank helps check it.

The government threatens to control prices, wages and commodities as well as credit, should inflation go wild.

The best way to attack Enemy Number Two is to save your money. It may shrink in purchasing power but as long as it speaks with authority in the market place, draws interest, buys goods and pays taxes, your money is worth saving. Buy only what you need, save what you can, and use the facilities of this bank freely to prosper.

There will be fortune telling, Hallowe'en stunts and games, a parade of costumes, Hallowe'en hall of horrors, bingo for high school and adults and other amusements which will be announced later.

Parent Teachers Month

In accordance with the governor's proclamation below, Mrs. E. A. Allen, president of the Pass Christian P. T. A., has announced that the association, the town's churches, and the various civic organizations have under contemplation various plans in celebration of Parent Teachers month, which will be put into effect in the very near future.

Whereas, all the citizens of Mississippi have a vital interest in the training of our young people; and

Whereas, in today's world it is of paramount importance that our youth be trained by the highest standards, both from the technical and moral standpoint, if they are to meet the problems of this complex age; and

Whereas, in every child there must be created a deep sense of moral responsibility and desire to live righteously at the same time he or she is developing the mental capacity to think effectively; and

Whereas, the needs of the age from the standpoint of training for youth cannot be met by the school or the home acting solely and independently of the other; but must be met by joint and cooperative endeavor with both parents and teachers sharing a never-ending responsibility;

Now, therefore, I, Fielding L. Wright, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do urge during the month of October the observance of PARENT TEACHERS MONTH and designate Sunday, October 15, 1950 as TEACHERS DAY and call upon the people of this state for fitting observance of the period by giving proper recognition to the many services being rendered by the teachers of Mississippi and by re-dedicating ourselves to the all-important task of giving the young people of Mississippi the very best in proper training and guidance.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed, this 12th day of September 1950.

Begin Novena At St. Paul's Thursday

Father J. P. McGlade, of St. Paul's Catholic church, announced that, in compliance with the request of the Catholic War Veterans of the U. S. A., a nine day novena was begun Thursday night at 7:30 at St. Paul's church. The novena began October 5, and will last through October 13, with the offering of key novenas of prayers and rosaries each evening at 7:30.

The Catholic War Veterans are preparing for their greatest peace offensive of all time, in this nine day campaign of intensive prayer. It is a world-wide crusade of prayers for peace with novenas being held from 15 great shrines on six continents. These shrines are St. Peter's in Rome; Fatima; Lourdes; Bethlehem; Jerusalem; La Salette; Lipa; Assisi; Our Lady of Sorrows, Chicago, Czechoslovakia, Poland—behind the iron curtain;

Our Lady of Victory (National Shrine), Camberrwell, Victoria, Australia; Sieho No. Kishi, Nagasaki, Japan; Christ The King Cathedral, Ndola, Northern Rhodesia, Africa; Blessed Martin De Porres Shrine, Lima, Peru; and Marytown, Kenosha, Wisconsin.

The Catholic War Veterans fought for peace, and now they see their sacrifices being rapidly nullified by communism both at home and abroad.

"The world is now already crossing the threshold of a new war," said father McGlade, as he urged all religious orders, Catholic organizations, all grades in the schools, and every soul young and old, to attend the novena and join the prayers and other penitential workers; to attend daily Mass and receive Communion, and to say the daily rosary.

The first daily in America was The Pennsylvania Packet and General Advertiser, started in Philadelphia in 1784.

One of the historic newspapers in the struggle for liberty was The Federalist founded by Alexander Hamilton.

The first war correspondent was George W. Kendall of the New Orleans Picayune who covered the Mexican War.
